We wanted to wish you a very happy new year and share an update on our projects in Cameroon in 2020.

The ongoing political crisis coupled with the pandemic has meant that the need for vital equipment and buildings for rural communities is in even greater demand at the moment.

Despite the incredibly challenging conditions, SHUMAS, our partner on the ground in Cameroon, have been able to operate. It is testament to their tenacity and commitment that the projects you have funded have been completed this year.

The Challenges (and success!) of delivering emergency relief

Our project to provide emergency humanitarian relief to 1000 of the Internally Displaced People (IDPs) in the hard-to-reach areas wasn't exactly easy to deliver! But our partner, SHUMAS, was as resourceful as ever.

What's life like for an IDP in Cameroon?

It's hard for most of us to imagine what it must be like for people who suddenly become Internally Displaced Persons (IDPs) in their own country. This has happened to almost a million Cameroonians in the NW and SW regions because of ongoing political crises and the appalling violence that has ensued.
